

Hurricane Katrina Relief Listserv

Working in Partnership Regionally to Best Serve Hurricane Katrina Evacuees

09/21/05

The Hurricane Katrina Listserv is a vehicle by which people and organizations looking to provide evacuee relief can post and receive breaking news and information, as well as ask questions that will be made available to a number of public, private and non-profit organizations working to provide aid to evacuees.

If you're sending out press releases, have breaking news or other information, or would like to post a question, please forward to them to crisis.response@uwsem.org.

CLR publishes special e-newsletter for Katrina Relief

Community Legal Resources (CLR) issued a special edition of its CLR e-Briefs with information for agencies working on local Katrina relief efforts. It cites a number of useful links, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's Hurricane Katrina Resource Page, as well as other resources for developers trying to make housing available for hurricane evacuees.

What's in a name?

The American Journalism Review looks at the term "refugee" as it relates to media coverage of Hurricane Katrina. The Review questions if the term accurately depicts the plight of the storm's victims, or if it is an insult to U.S. citizens.
