Working in Partnership Regionally to Best Serve Hurricane Katrina Evacuees

10/13/05

The Hurricane Katrina Listserv is a vehicle by which people and organizations looking to provide evacuee relief can post and receive breaking news and information, as well as ask questions that will be made available to a number of public, private and non-profit organizations working to provide aid to evacuees.

If you're sending out press releases, have breaking news or other information, or would like to post a question, please forward them to crisis.response@uwsem.org.

Katrina website to post long-term care services

At Tuesday's Katrina response meeting, a need was identified for a list of long-term care services that are available to evacuees who choose to remain in metro Detroit.

Compilation of the list has already begun, and will be available on United Way's Katrina

Relief website (katrina.uwsem.org/) next week.

If you would like to register long-term services for hurricane evacuees, you may do so by clicking here.

"Working Together" Job Expo set for October 28

Working Together: the Southeast Michigan Employment, Training & Family Resource Expo was announced yesterday morning at the Hurricane Katrina response meeting in Southfield. The expo will be held on Friday, October 28 at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Working Together is aimed at channeling the energy behind local hurricane relief efforts into helping people in our own community who need jobs or have barriers to employment. Evacuees remaining in metro Detroit are also welcome to attend.

Working Together is a partnership of more than a dozen public, private and nonprofit organizations, and is set to be the largest workforce event of its kind in Michigan.

Survey: Metro Detroit Response to Katrina

The information gathered in this survey is being collected and compiled to document community opinion related to Michigan and Metro Detroit's public officials and entities response to hurricane Katrina. The responses will be submitted in an aggregate format to elected officials, emergency management leaders, FEMA, and participants who completed this survey. You will not be identified individually, but your responses will be aggregated and compared with others and will represent many that were not asked to complete this survey. UWSEM offers relief fund to help evacuees

In an effort to help support the needs of evacuees in Metro Detroit, United Way for Southeastern Michigan will begin distribution of the Metro Detroit Hurricane Katrina Response Fund, which is a limited, last resort, one-time fund to help evacuees with utility costs, security deposits and transportation. All applications must be completed by a human service professional on behalf of clients.
